رمضان كريم

Ramadan is a blessed month that increases a Muslim's spiritual awareness, and reminds people of their duties towards the needy in the community.

~Don't dance or sing in public at any time.

~Don't play loud music at any time in your car, on the beach or even at home. If you do play music; just make sure it can't be heard outside your car or home and try to use headphones. Quiet background music is acceptable.

~Don't wear revealing or tight fitting clothes in public.

~Don't smoke, drink, chew gum or eat in public during the hours of sunrise to sunset. This includes while you are driving as well as public places such as malls, cinemas or offices.

~Don't say bad things about people.

~Do say “Ramadan Kareem” to your Muslim friends and colleagues.

~Do drink and eat in the designated areas provided only, where the door can be closed.

~Do dress respectfully, covering knees and shoulders.

~Do give to the poor and help the needy.
